I put a lot of energy and am working through things constantly over and over in my head, and listening back on repeat (I have a playlist of my tracks that I sync to my phone while I'm working on them called "On Repeat" that I loop over). Little by little getting out of a dark place from last year.
Making strides to change my mindset and be positive and enjoy the little things while having bigger goals down the road.
Still have my days where I feel miserable but over trekking in a good way, Amen.

Strangely, life gets harder when you try to make it easy.

Exercising might be hard, but never moving makes life harder.

Uncomfortable conversations are hard, but avoiding every conflict is harder.

Mastering your craft is hard, but having no skills is harder.

Easy has a cost.

Society teaches us to look at money with a slave mindset: 40 hours a week for $15 an hour = $600

Entrepreneur mindset sees: 10 sales x $1000 in commission = $10,000.00

It's 2022!!

Both require 40 hours a week, but one yields you a higher return to your bank account.

1. Do a life audit

Doing a life audit is crucial for pinpointing where to make adjustments and jumpstarting your new journey.

What changes would make the biggest impact in your life?

2. Make a mindset shift

Your mindset is what sets the tone for everything in your life.

Change your perspective - from now on anytime anything negative happens, instead of feeling like a victim, ask yourself what you can control or change.

Having a vision means we have a clear sense of purpose.

It means that we have a much larger picture of our business that simply setting and reaching short term goals and tackling problems as they come along.

4. Work on yourself daily

Once you have your vision, the fog lifts and your road map starts to become clear again.

Nobody is going to drive the car for you. Be consistent and put in the work. Daily practice is how you make it happen.

5. Design your environment

If you want change in your life, YOU aren't the only thing that has to change - your environment has to change too.

You need to start surrounding yourself with people who inspires you and not demotivates you.

6. Learn new skills and improve upon your existing ones

Nothing will change your life faster than building new skills. Whatever the case, imagine a year where you start out having a limited skill-set. And ending the year with new knowledge and skills.

Dedicate time during your day to build your skills.

7. Lastly, enjoy the process

The whole point of this exercise is to CHANGE. That means your thoughts and behaviors, in addition to your surroundings, will change throughout the year.

Don't get so focused on the process that you lose sight of what YOU want.

MY OBJECTIVE EVERYDAY, YALL ARE ALL AMAZING! KEEP UP THE GREAT WORK!

TAKE TIME OUT TODAY TO TAG somebody that you know is working hard and tell them you're proud of them. Whether they're working hard to be a better person, run a business, or chase a dream. You never know who may need to hear those words to keep going.

Six Things Mentally Strong People Do

1. They move on. They don't waste time feeling sorry for themselves.
2. They embrace change. They welcome challenges.
3. They stay happy. They don't waste energy on things they can't control
4. They are kind, fair and unafraid to speak up.
5. They are willing to take calculated risks.
6. They celebrate other people's success. They don't resent that success.

At the very minimum, make it a priority to invest $20 of every $100 you earn.

Do whatever you want with the other $80, just make sure to pay your future self first by investing the $20.

Think of it as your "financial freedom" tax.

themarkethustle Aim for investing 20% of your income AT MINIMUM. The more the better of course. But 20% will give you a great shot at building enough passive income to replace your income. Do whatever you want with the other 80%, just make sure you're continually investing

1. Improve your mental diet.

Everything changes when you realise your diet isn't just what you eat.

It's what you watch, what you read, who you follow and who you spend your time with.

If your goal is to have a healthier mind, start by removing the junk from your diet.

2. Learn to let people down.

Your mental health is more important than your career, money, other people's opinions, that event you said you'd attend, your partner's mood and your family's wishes, combined.

If taking care of yourself means letting someone down, then let someone down.

3. Set clear boundaries, and protect them.

You don't lose real friends, real opportunities or real relationships when you start standing up for yourself and setting clear boundaries.

You lose abusers, manipulators, narcissists, attention seekers and mental health destroying leeches.

Anything you lose when you stand up for yourself is something else gained.

4. Make replacements.

Real self-care requires replacement.

Replace Netflix marathons with sleep.
Replace fake influencers with inspiring creators.

Replace toxic friends with mentors.
Replace complaining with gratitude.
Replace blame with responsibility.
Replace overthinking with action.

5. Look forward at your future, not back at your past.

Your mental health will never improve if you keep searching for happiness in the same toxic people and places that you lost it.

That person is still an asshole, that relationship is still toxic, that job still sucks, your past is your past.

You have to look forward to move forward.

6. Upgrade your library.

People spend up to 9 hours a day on social media.

For this generation, your timeline is your library and it's one of the biggest influences on what we think and feel.

Put better books in your library by following more people that educate, inspire and motivate, and fewer people that are negative, shallow, and petty

7. Stop self-rejecting.

So many people will try and stop you from reaching your potential. Don't allow yourself to be one of them.

Scared you'll be rejected? Apply for that job anyway.

Scared of the unknown? Move to that country anyway.

Scared of their opinion? Be yourself anyway. It's time to stop self-rejecting your life away.

Did you know there are people who make $300,000 a year and are still BROKE?

Yet, there are people making $60,000 a year who are living comfortably.

You don’t have to make a lot of money to be smart with your money.

Don't be the rich broke guy. Make your money work for you.

LIFE FORMULAS I (2008)

These are notes to myself. Your frame of reference, and therefore your calculations, may vary. These are not definitions—these are algorithms for success. Contributions are welcome.

→ Happiness = Health + Wealth + Good Relationships
→ Health = Exercise + Diet + Sleep
→ Exercise = High Intensity Resistance Training + Sports + Rest
→ Diet = Natural Foods + Intermittent Fasting + Plants
→ Sleep = No alarms + 8–9 hours + Circadian rhythms
→ Wealth = Income + Wealth * (Return on Investment)
→ Income = Accountability + Leverage + Specific Knowledge
→ Accountability = Personal Branding + Personal Platform + Taking Risk?
→ Leverage = Capital + People + Intellectual Property
→ Specific Knowledge = Knowing how to do something society cannot yet easily train other people to do

Ask me a question

How many hours/days did you rehearse your recent set before filming?

Dude, it's not even funny.

Everyday for like a month.

Not to mention just finishing tunes, building the live set, and organising the event overall. It was a 4 months process 😶 pharaohsegyptian Ramesses II, the Great Pharaoh of Egypt, is one of the most famous rulers in history. He ruled for 66 years and built many temples and monuments, including the Abu Simbel temples. He was also a great warrior and led his army to victory in many battles. Ramesses II died at the age of 90 and was buried in the Valley of the Kings. His mummy was discovered in 1881 and is now on display in the Egyptian Museum in Cairo.

Earlier in my music writing journey it was the specifics that were important - THIS sound, THIS melody, I had to make THIS idea work. With more experience I've realized I now prioritize broader approaches: Where does the energy want to flow? How can the emotional impact be enhanced? What can be done to support the vision?

884 likes

Three rules for high-performance:

1. Take care of your body
(Run, lift, eat well)

2. Take care of your mind
(Read, journal, self-educate)

3. Take care of your spirit
(Cut porn, practice gratitude, have high standards)

If you want a better life, have better habits.

Set a small goal: 1+ upload a month to start off and go from there.

I'm doing the same for my stuff, at least bi-weekly beats drop angel go from there.

Much love man

I would DEFINITELY recommend checking out a cruise. Imo it's one of the best ways to have a holiday if you like to see, do and eat a lot of stuff.

Ask me a question
How to push through creative blocks??
Understand that that's all part of the process.
Can't have the good days without the bad.
In times when the music just isn't flowing, focus on other areas that are still working toward your goals.
Tidy the studio, organise your samples, update your software, build some templates, save some presets, explore packs that you downloaded and never used.

"Make it pop"

We've all heard this, but how do you make a thumbnail "pop"? This is one of life's greatest mysteries...

...until now! Here's what "make it pop" ACTUALLY means. 👇

Simply, "pop" just means contrast. But wait. Most associate contrast to making the brights brighter and the darks darker because of the 'contrast' slider in Photoshop. However, 'contrast' or 'juxtaposition' are umbrella terms in design which encompass everything, not just color.

Jay @JayGDesign · 2h

But focusing on color, how can you effectively utilize it in thumbnails? Colors have 3 values:

1. Hue
2. Saturation
3. Luminosity

Which means there's 3 different values to take advantage of to create contrast.

Here's some examples of this being done masterfully:

Firstly, the obvious: Luminosity.

It's still possible to emphasise something visually without the use of color.

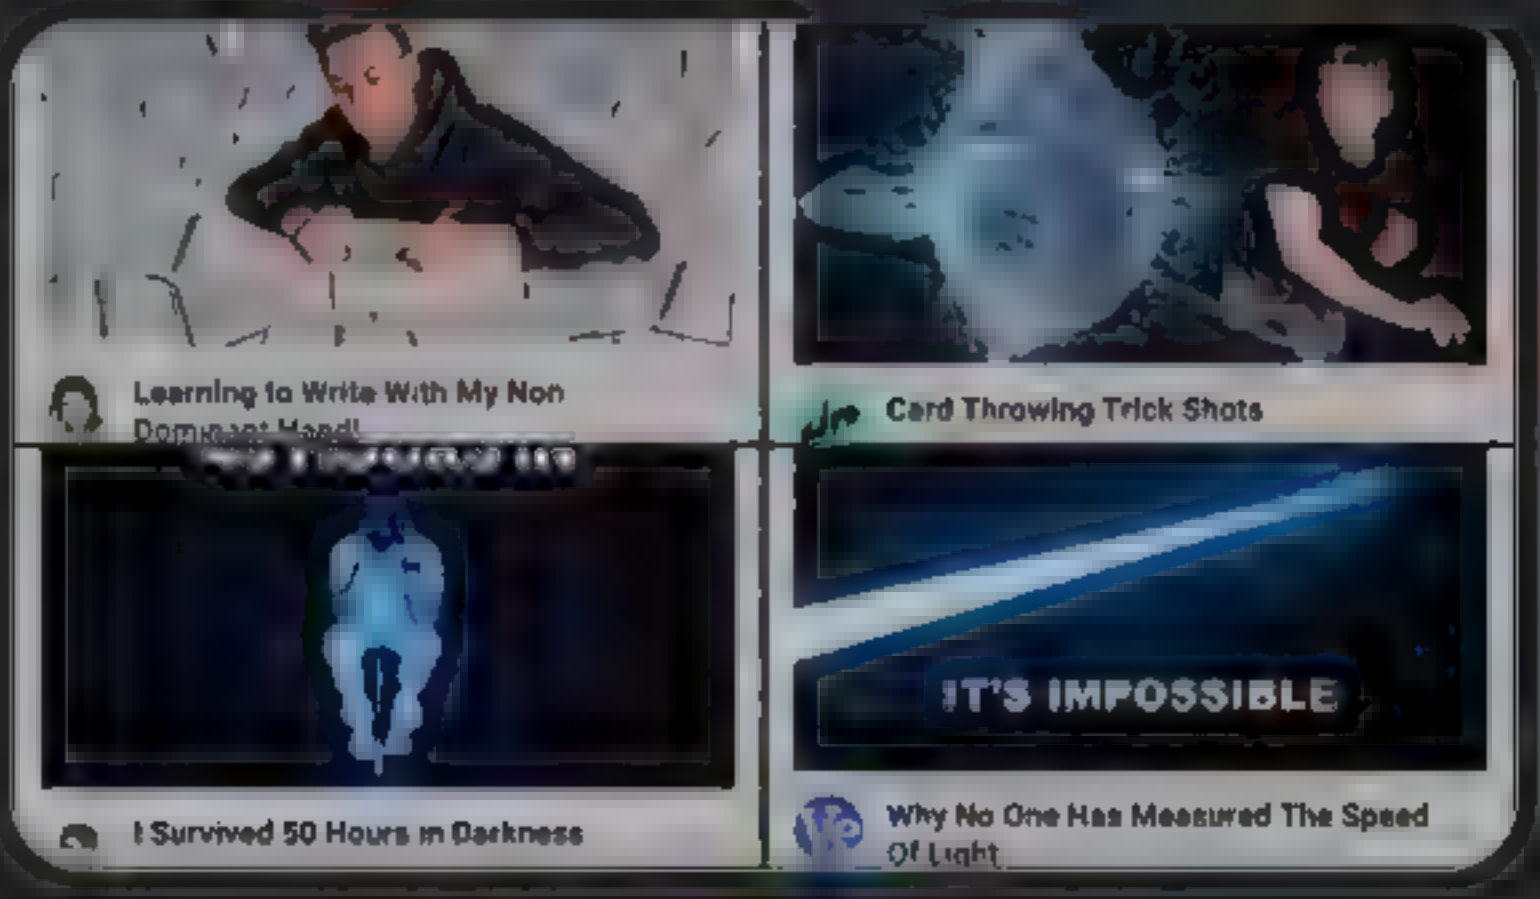
Firstly, the obvious: Luminosity.

It's still possible to emphasise something visually without the use of color.

It's also worth noting that different colors have different 'perceived lightness' to them. But thats a color theory lesson I don't want to go into (yet).



1 14

Jay @JayGDesign · 2h

Secondly: Saturation.

The iconic ZHC brush stroke is the perfect example of this. Ultra saturation to draw your attention in, surrounded by areas of low saturation.

It's not always appropriate to maximise the saturation in every area of every thumbnail you make.

Without going into boring color theory stuff, you can essentially have maximum saturation/lightness and still create areas of focus through just the colors you choose and where you use them.

And there you go. I just tricked you into reading a brief introductory lesson on color theory. Wasn't so bad was it?

I also go more into depth with more examples in this video here if you want to learn a bit more: youtu.be/3H-gEWdMiU

Reframing your perspective is a powerful move. When you feel stuck or resistant, pause and look for the upside. Shifting your thinking from 'I have to do this' to 'I get to do this' engages curiosity. This turns every experience into a chance for growth, wisdom, and understanding.

This is truly saddening. especially since he was the first nerdcore artist I ever heard in in 2020. and opened the door to amazing artists.

The Aracespin

The Aracespin is a theropod with a height of up to 2 meters and a length from the tip of the snout to the tail can reach 6-7 meters. With strong leg bones and muscles. They are carnivorous reptiles but they are also human. Insights of their habitat, physical characteristics that we can understand are the horns around the head, like spikes that taper upwards and sticking out to the tailbone. Actually they will fight not using their paws but pitting their horns against each other. On the physical characteristics of their body structure. Their legs are very strong so they can support their weight. Their hands are so small and only have 2 fingers, of course for the function of these hands only as a balance when they run, one thing that is unique is that they have 4 eyeballs. They are like spider eyes, able to increase the size of the eyes to enable them to hunt prey at night.

Costco is selling its hotdogs at a loss. We can exploit this

Shitpost

In 1985, Costco introduced a deal at its food court: for the price of just $1.50 you could get a quarter pound hotdog and soda. Now, 37 years later, the price still hasn't changed, even as the cost of beef, labor, and other inputs has dramatically increased. With the rampant inflation that we are experiencing today, that same combo deal should cost >$5 meaning that Costco loses about tree fiddy per hotdog.

Wallstreetbets is big and stronk. We have over 12 million members. If each WSB redditor goes out and buys 1000 hot dogs from Costco, we can lose Costco 12 million * $3.50 * 1000 = 42 billion dollars. If we also short Costco before their next earnings report, we can 1) Recover the cost of the hotdogs 2) Make a profit and 3) Get a lot of hotdogs

Tl;dr A plan for WSB to turn hotdogs into tendies while Costco foots the bill. Might also solve world hunger, too. It can't go tits up

Buy stock in several companies that make products & services that you believe in.

Only sell if you think their products & services are trending worse. Don't panic when the market does.

2) use online cash from IG pages, agency etc to buy assets such as stocks

3) use that growing money to build generational wealth with real estate and dividends

The Market Hustle
@themarkethustle

Nobody buys a farm based on whether they think it's going to rain next year. They buy because they think it's a good investment over 10 or 20 years. It's the same with stocks. Think of stocks as a part ownership of a business. It's not that complicated.

It's 2032. You're in the best shape of your life, collecting rent from your 5 rental properties, and about to book a 2 week trip to Bali (paid for by your stocks). All thanks to the action & focus you implemented in 2022.

Never too young to learn this is wholesome dude!

I like to sound and take pieces of those I'm inspired by but add my own element in there.

I prefer growls/singing but lately I had a resurgence in wanting to practice rapping again.

Mostly by myself for fun but MAY release vocals in the future.

不、不要啪啪啪啪！
怕痛！怕痛！

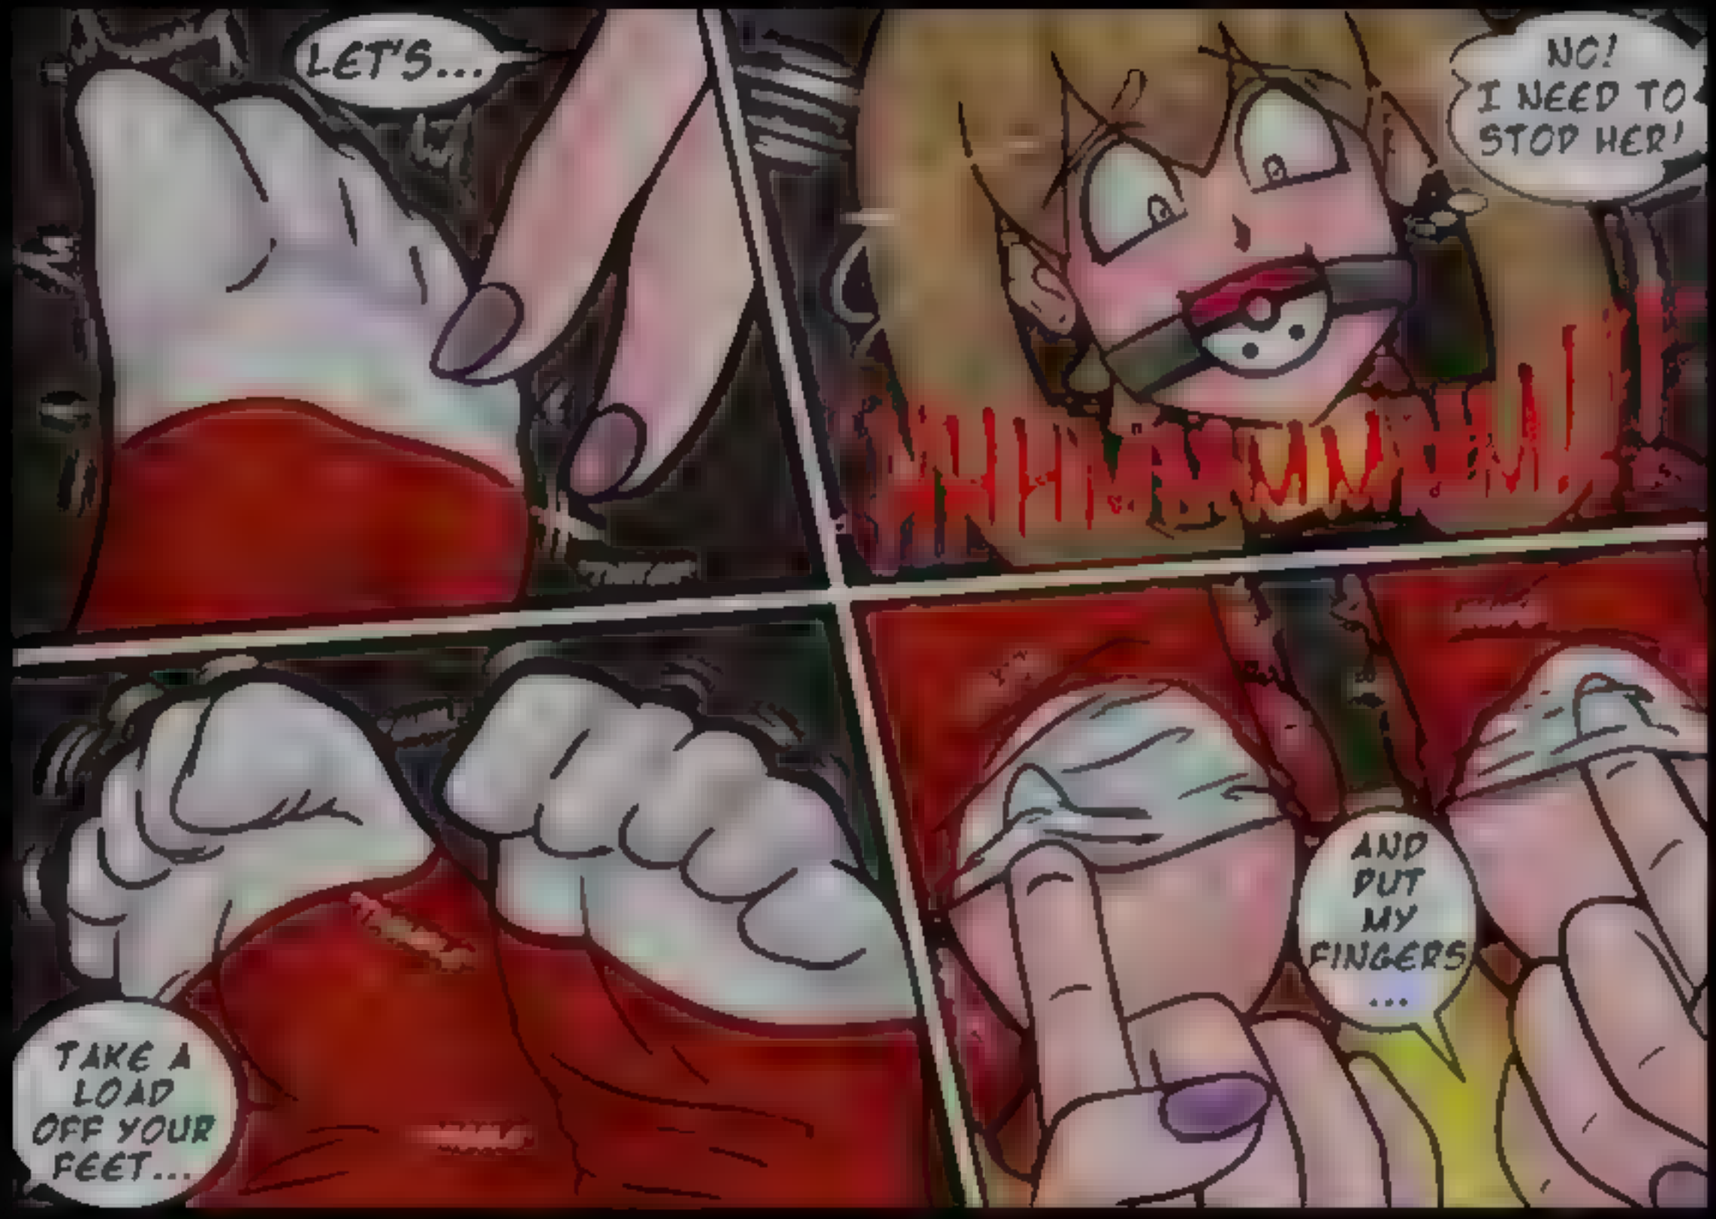
唔！这是什么！？



LET'S...
NO! I NEED TO STOP HER!
AND PUT MY FINGERS ...
TAKE A LOAD OFF YOUR FEET...

INTO THE "SOLE" REASON FOR ALL YOUR PROBLEMS!
HMM
"HOLD"
"GRIP"
"STRUGGLE"
"SHAKE"
NNNGHH N-NO! DON'T DO THAT I WON'T LET YOU DO THAT! N-NNNGHH!

YOU ALWAYS WERE A FIGHTER MAY.
BUT COME ON, FOR SOMETHING AS SILLY AS THESE?
"WIGGLE"
HERE, I TOOK MY GLOVES OFF. SO SHOW SOME COURTESY AND EVEN THE PLAYING FIELD A BIT WILL YOU?
LET'S HAVE A FAIR [illegible]. MY POINTY UNCOVERED NAILS AGAINST..
"WIGGLE"

YOUR

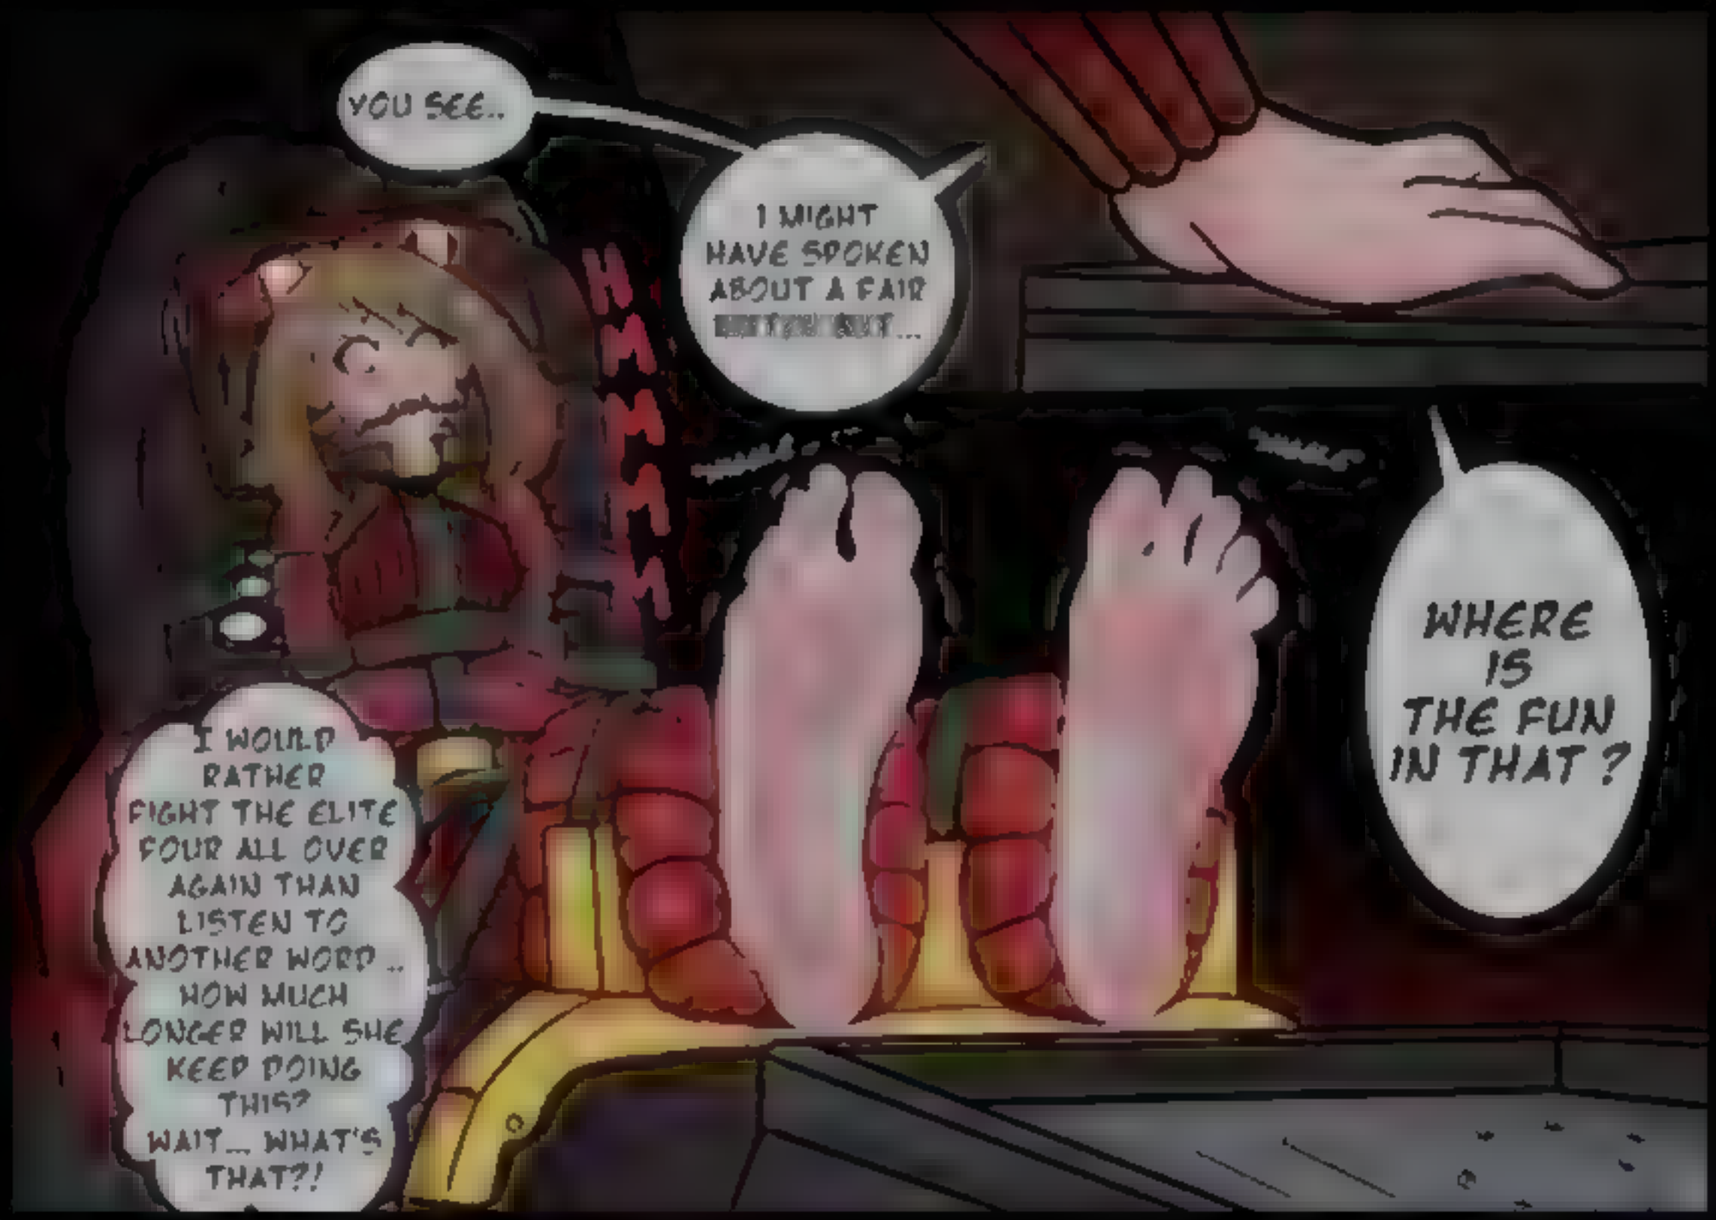
THESE SILKY SOCKS OF YOURS FELT GREAT DIDN'T THEY?
THEY HAVE NOT EXPERIENCED THE REAL DEAL
BUT YOU KNEW THIS ALL ALONG DIDNT YOU ?
HHHHHHH!!!
EEEEK! N-NO SHUT UP ALREADY! S-STOP TOUCHING MY FEET!

HHHHMM!!
DON'T EVEN BOTHER TRYING TO SQUEAK OUT ANOTHER WORD. THAT'S WHAT THE GAG IS FOR ALL. YOUR REACTIONS CAN'T LIE TO ME. AND YOU'RE... CRYING ALLREADY? UNEXPECTED...BUT.

I'VE NEVER SEEN ANYONE BREAK THIS EASY AND EXPLOSIVELY BEFORE! IN FACT I NEED TO REEVALUATE YOU...
I WELCOME IT! I KNEW THAT YOU WERE TICKLISH. BUT THIS HAS SURPASSED EVEN MY WILDEST OF EXPECTATIONS!

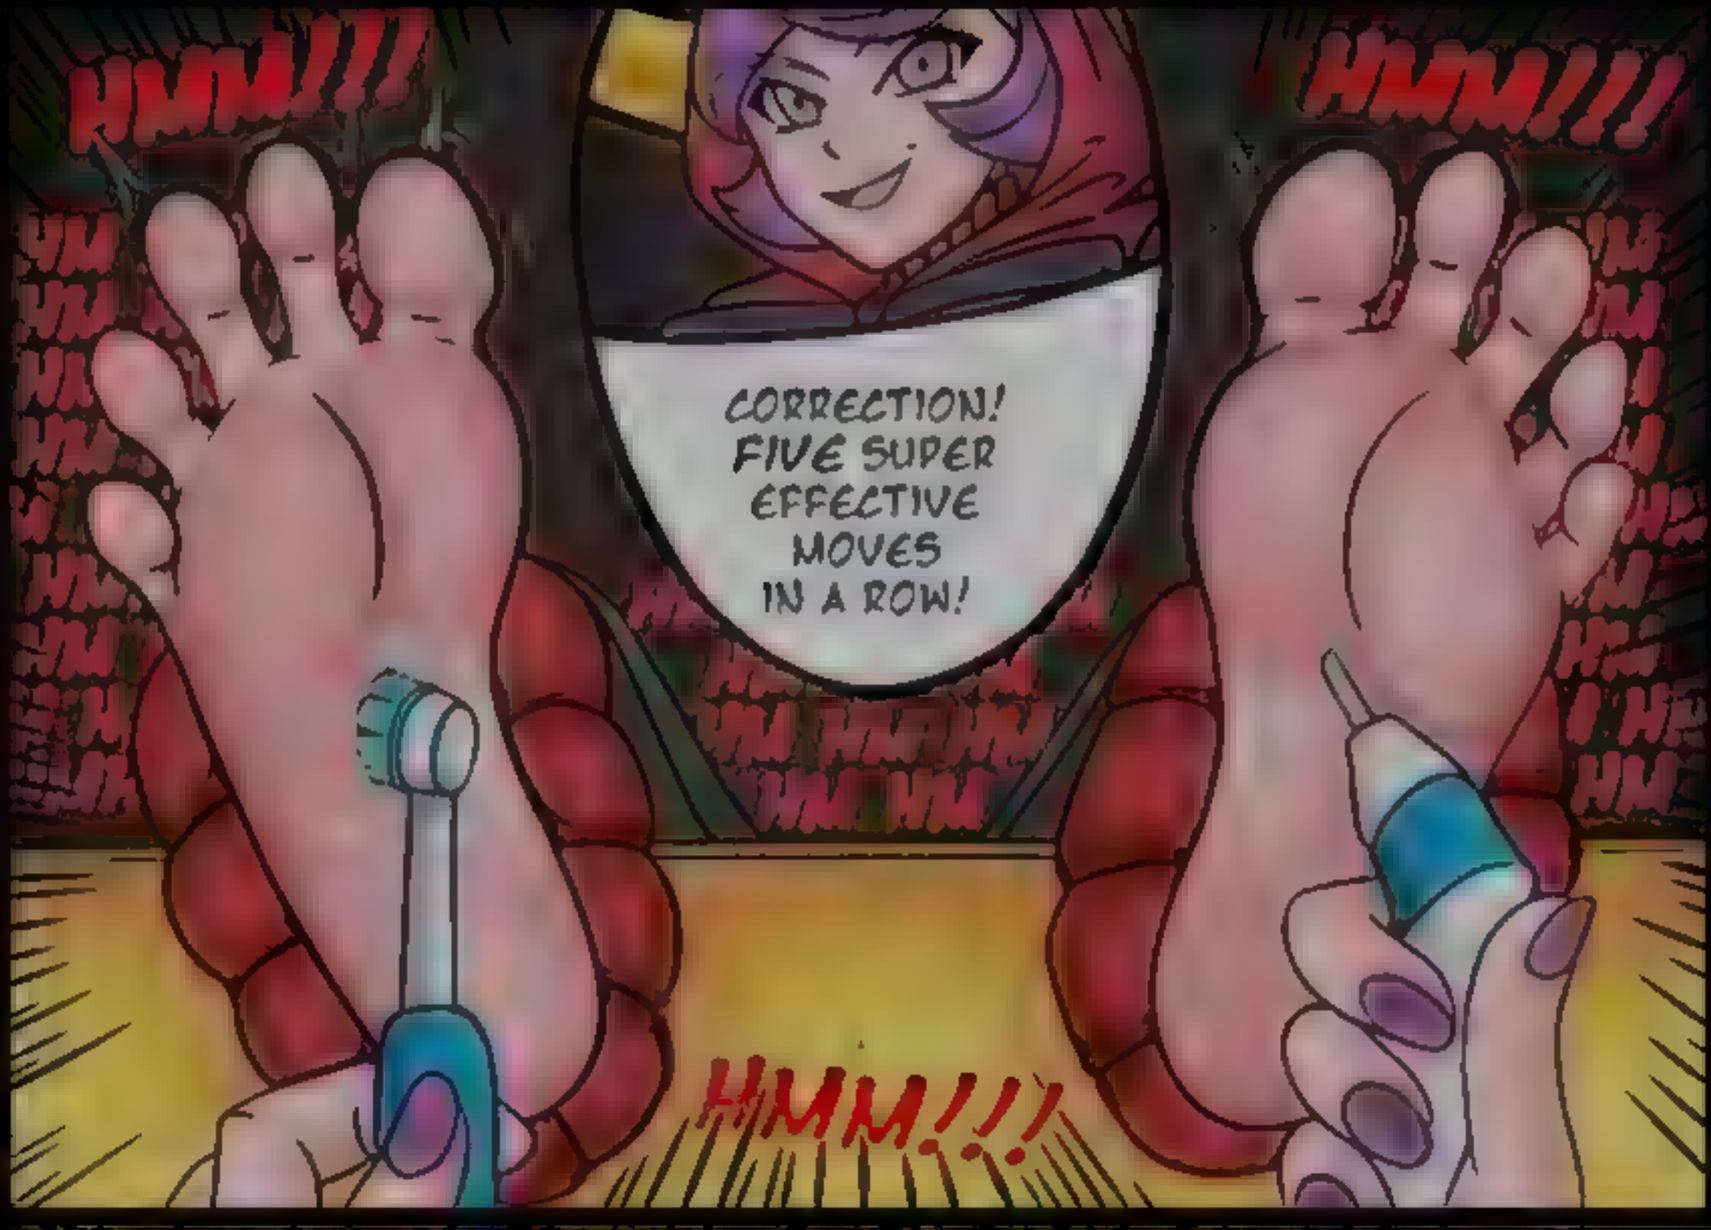


YOU SEE..
I MIGHT HAVE SPOKEN ABOUT A FAIR [redacted]...
HMMM
I WOULD RATHER FIGHT THE ELITE FOUR ALL OVER AGAIN THAN LISTEN TO ANOTHER WORD .. HOW MUCH LONGER WILL SHE KEEP DOING THIS? WAIT... WHAT'S THAT?!
WHERE IS THE FUN IN THAT ?

AFTER ALL ..
AIN'T POKEMON BATTLES ALL ABOUT FINDING AND USING THE SUPER EFFECTIVE MOVES ?
N-NO WAY

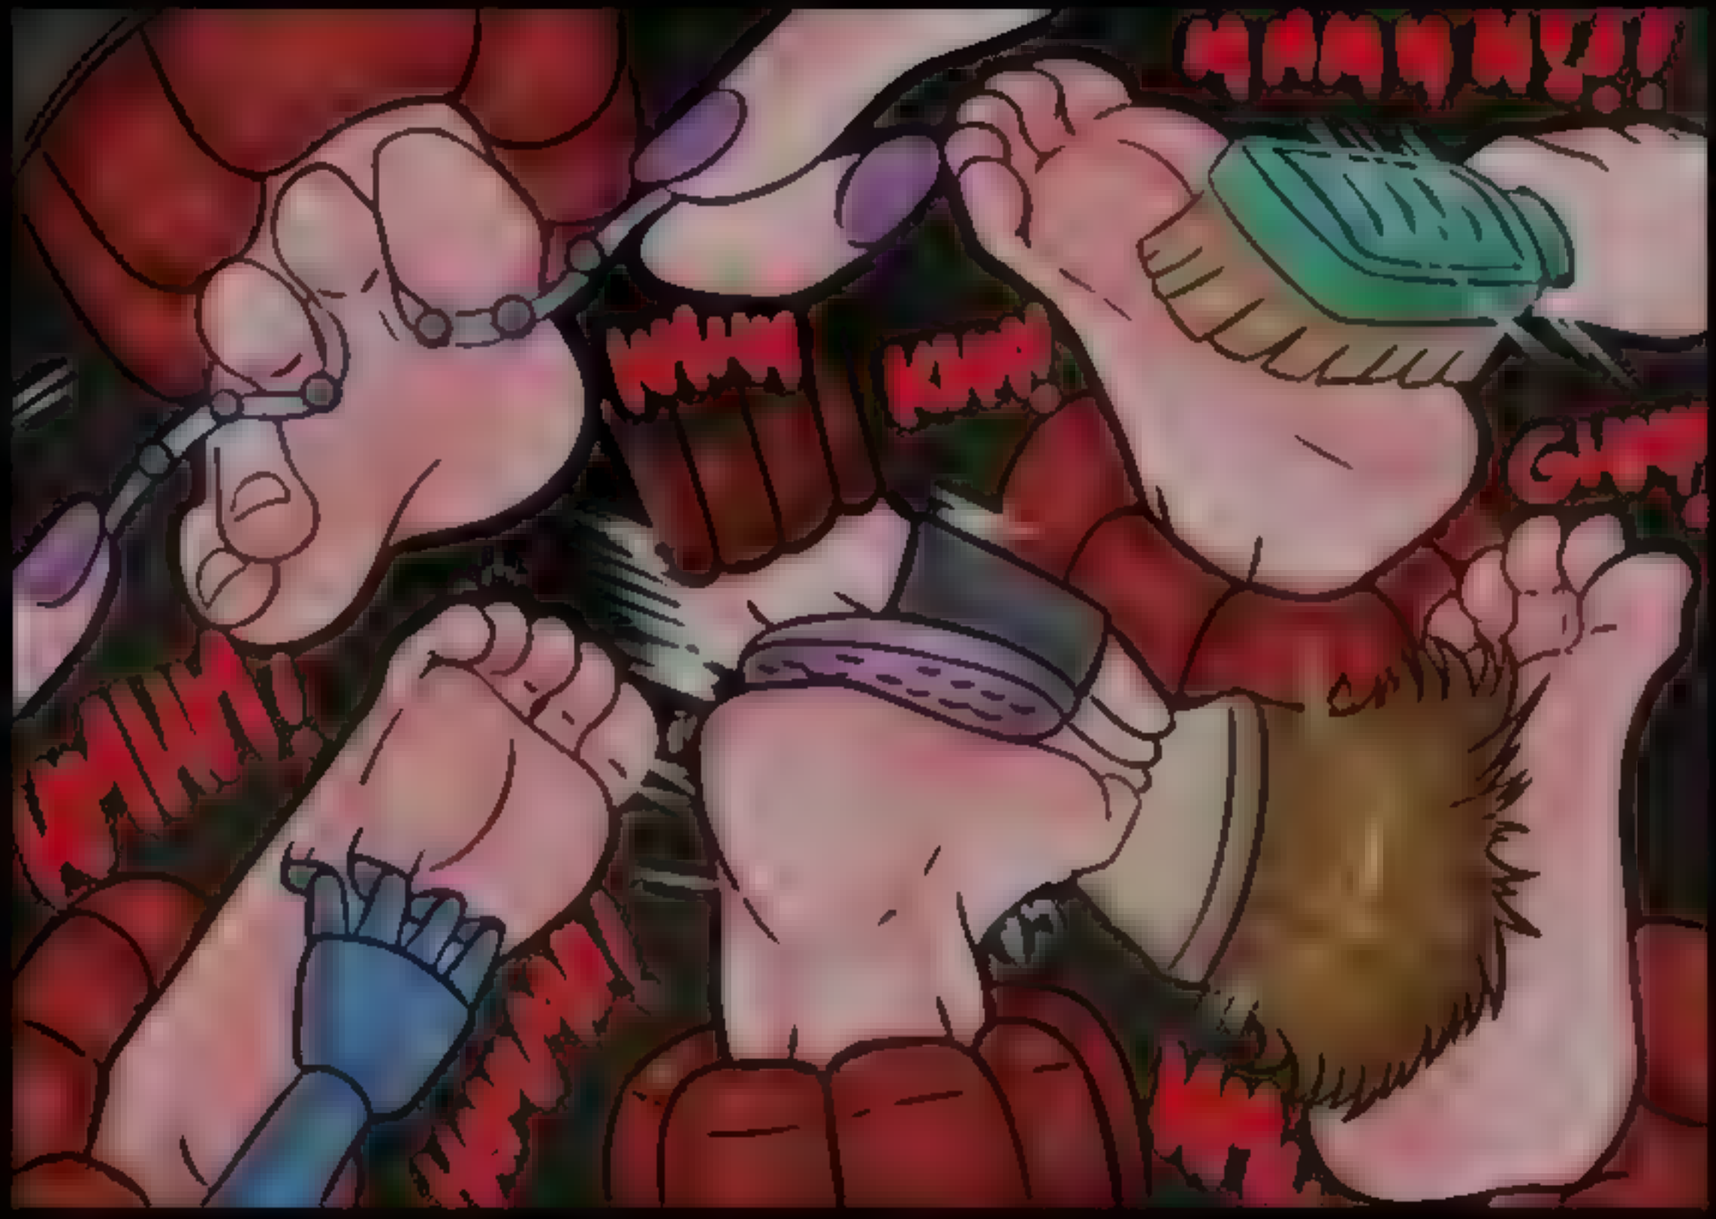
IT MAKES ME WONDER. WHAT ELSE WILL BE SUPER EFFECTIVE ON THESE SOLES...
NO! PLEASE! SHE CAN'T REALLY PLAN ON USING ALL OF THOSE EEECK! AHAHAHA!

ANOTHER WEAKNESS FOUND? HA HA! THAT MAKES THREE SO FAR..
S-SHUT UP ALREADY! HAHAHA N-NO WHY DID SHE HAD TO AIM FOR MY FEET OF ALL PLACES?



HMM!!!
HMM!!!
CORRECTION! FIVE SUPER EFFECTIVE MOVES IN A ROW!
HMM!!!

2:15 38%



DO YOU POSSESS NO RESISTANCE AT ALL?!
ONLY I TOOL LEFT TO FIND OUT AND...
IT MIGHT BE THE WORST SO FAR!
BWAHAHA! I CAN'T! NOHOHO! SOMEONE! PLEASE HELP ME!
HMHMHMHMHMHM!!
MMMHM!
HHHHKAAN!

THAT OTHER FOOT LOOKED KINDA LONELY SO IT MIGHT AS WELL JOIN IN ON THIS RIDE RIGHT AWAY... AND HAHAHA I AM GONNA DIE! I-I CAN'T EVEN KYAHAHAHA THINK STRAIGHT! HAHAHA HHHHMM!!

TSS TSS.
TOO BAD MAY.
DO YOU HAVE NO SHAME?
I'M STARTING TO DOUBT
YOUR VICTORIES.
MAYBE YOUR POKEMON WERE
THE ONES WHO ACTUALLY WON
THE BATTLES,
WHILE YOU WERE SIMPLY CARRIED.
MAYBE
WE SHOULD ADD
A NEW POKEDEX ENTRY
UNDER YOUR NAME.
HOW DOES
"MOST WEAKNESSES"

THIS WAS QUITE INFORMATIVE
BUT LET'S SIT BACK, RELAX
AND PUT YOUR FEET UP FOR A SECOND
AHH RIGHT... YOU DID NOTHING ELSE THE ENTIRE TIME ANYWAY

NOW NOW
HOW ABOUT A CHANGE OF PACE?
AN INVITATION TO
THE MOVIES
SOUNDS GOOD?
OH? YOU'RE JUST
AS EXCITED
AS I AM?
HAHA!

OH SURPRISED ?
HAHA..
HAHAHA
YOU THOUGHT YOU WERE THE ONLY ONE HERE? NO WAY. IN FACT, YOU ARE THE LAST ONE TO ARRIVE! THE GUEST OF HONOR AND SOON TO BE THE STAR OF THE SHOW...
THIS IS NOT POSSIBLE!

tanner.chidester Everyone deals with self-doubt once in a while, even successful business owners.

A little self-doubt is not only normal, it's healthy.

Allowing self-doubt to prevent you from grabbing opportunities that come your way is an act of self-sabotage.

Self-doubt can be a troubling and persuasive voice that holds you back. It holds you back from seizing your opportunities. It makes getting started or finishing things harder than they need to be.

At one point or another, we will all find ourselves experiencing some sort of self-doubt; it's part of being human.

Give yourself more credit, you're doing great!

Geometry works right? Like how a square is a shape. Squaring up makes another shape. Which is a cube because it's squares on multiple sides.

Bruh I'm telling y'all even when it looks like I'm saying something simple. There's layers to it

Miss Sada thank you for willingly offer as my NEW test subject I am sure you will find my research quite intriguing

We managed to replicate the adaptative properties of Ditto in order to create our own personal malleable fibers

It seems your soles have a nice reaction to the different stimulus from the different textures

We will need further investigations... thank you fo[redacted] cooperation o[redacted]

It’s easy to invest your money when the market is on fire

It’s easy to workout when you’re motivated

It’s easy to save money & eat right when you have momentum

But the wins are found when you do the hard things when you don’t feel like it

When motivation goes, discipline wins

The Market Hustle
@themarkethustle

Money Rules:

- Don't borrow money to buy luxuries.
- Don't lend money to friends you want to keep.
- Treat credit cards like debit cards.
- If you can't buy it twice, you can't afford it.
- Invest $20 of every $100 you earn.
- Spend less than you make.

We can go a few directions -

One, rescan plugins in FL Studio. As long as everything was installed in the default location, the VST, VST3, AU, and AAX should all live in the ~/library/audio/plugins/ file path.

Next, Open FL Studio using Rosetta and give that a shot. You do this by right-clicking the app in the applications folder, select "Get Info," then check the box "open using Rosetta." Relaunch the DAW and Arcade.

Third option is if you have the most up-to-date version of FL Studio (M1 Native), I'd encourage you to submit a request for M1 Beta Testing in the support site. On the top of the page at support output com, you'll se "Become a Beta Tester." If you get a notification that it is full and you still wish to try the native version before public release, I can shoot our QA your email address and they can set you up. Otherwise, we are close to a release.

HOW TO CLEAN YOUR MIND

1. Unfollow.
Start unfollowing people who don't give real value to your feed.

2. Be Selective Socially
Start intentionally keeping your social circle small, keep the good people close.

3. Be Present
Focus is perhaps the greatest skill you can master. You can't change the past, but you can control and enjoy the present.

4. Eat Clean
You are what you eat. Clean food, clean mind; vice versa.

5. Meditate
Start unfollowing people who don't give real value to your feed.

6. Take a Break
Take a trip out to nature or somewhere quiet and enjoy the serene environment. Forget about your problems.

The older I get, the more I realize the value of staying low key, of cultivating your circle and only letting certain people in. You can be open, honest, and real while still understanding not everyone deserves a seat at your table.

I'm a religious person and I have my views on the matter but to take away options/choices in general is not right.

But I agree it's crazy how a few can dictate the lives of many. I just hope those same people dont find themselves on the other side.

IF THERES ANYTHING I LEARNED:

1. APPLY WHAT YOU LEARNED BUT KEEP IT SIMPLE. DONT FOCUS ON SIMPLY OUTDOING YOURSELF.

2. NEVER BE AFRAID TO REACH OUT (IN GENERAL) FOR IDEAS, PERSPECTIVES, ETC.

3. PATIENCE PAYS OFF WITH EFFORT MADE IN THE INITIAL STAGES.

4. BEING OKAY WITHOUT RECEIVING AFFIRMATION FROM EVERYONE, YOU KNOW AND THAT'S WHAT MATTERS. TAKE THE GOOD AND LEARN FROM THE BAD, BUT BE OKAY WITH STANDING OUT.

YEAH, JUST WANTED TO PUT MY THOUGHTS ON PAPER. LOVE YALL!

Gratitude will change your life.

- Gratitude can change your life because it makes you appreciate what you have rather than what you don't have.
- A daily gratitude practice will remind you of all the good that surrounds you, and in turn, your positive thoughts and energy will attract the right people and opportunities.

If you're outside your comfort zone, you're doing it right.

- As you start working toward the things that you really want to do, you're not going to feel ready. You're going to feel outside your comfort zone. And that's normal.
- When you start to feel like you're stretching yourself, and you're sticking your neck out there, and you're taking some risks, that's amazing because you're GROWING.

Other people's opinions don't matter.

- Being bogged down by what other people think of you is crazy! Half the time, the people who are sharing these opinions are complete failures and are projecting their wants, needs, failures and desires onto you.
- The only opinion that matters is yours. If you believe you can do the impossible, then you will.

If you don't feel ready, do it anyway.

- The truth is that you are never going to be prepared enough to take the train. But if you don't do it, you may be losing one of the best opportunities that will come your way.
- You'll always feel nervous right before you start. You won't have all the answers. And yes, you're going to screw up a few times. Do it anyway.

You don't need permission,
You need to take action.

- Here's the truth: The people in life that get what they want are the ones that aren't waiting for an external force to validate their dreams, to inspire them, or to give them permission.
- It's the people that realize that success, happiness, and control comes from an internal force, which is YOU.

Your dreams are your responsibility.

- If you're waiting for somebody to give you permission, or to discover you, or to pick you, I've got news for you: no one's coming.
- We have to stop waiting for people to make things happen for us or to point out and recognize our greatness so that we can feel more comfortable pursuing our dreams.

Before taking a job offer, it's worth asking: do I want to become more like the people here?

You can aspire to change the culture of a group, but don't overlook how the culture will change you.

Few of us are immune to the values of the people around us.

learn my tools, the basics of production, mixing and mastering, listen to music i want to make and learn. Release when i know its ready but consistent basis and its made production a lot more fun, enjoyable, making strides in my quality and i dont feel as burnt out like before.

Also doing artwork has helped on days where i havent been making music to fill the gap and get creative juices going and then from there, my art inspires the music at times as well.

Sorry for my essay, been doing music production for a 1 1/2 years for fun but i love putting effort in what i do.
Thankful for my community encouraging me not to be hard on myself and your videos for being a breath of fresh air, appreciate you and keep up the amazing content sir! :)

This is a beautiful journey. I love that you spend your "off days" doing artwork... such a good way to keep your creative mind fresh!

blood, shed on the cross.

21 Once you were alienated from God and were enemies in your minds because of your evil behavior. 22 But now he has reconciled you by Christ's physical body through death to present you holy in his sight, without blemish and free from accusation— 23 if you continue in your faith, established and firm, and do not move from the hope held out in the gospel. This is the gospel that you heard and that has been proclaimed to every

14 Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has ascended into heaven,
Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to the faith we profess. 15 For we do not have a high priest who is unable to empathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are—yet he did not sin.
16 Let us then approach God's throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

When your mental health is bad, give yourself a break.

Don't make yourself feel guilty for things you can't do. Don't feel bad about eating bad, about not doing as much as you normally would. You're human. It's okay to struggle. Look after yourself, and your mind. It's important.

How you can ease the pain yourself

Sciatica usually gets better in 4 to 6 weeks, but it can sometimes last longer.

To help relieve your pain and speed up recovery:

Do

- carry on with your normal activities as much as possible
- regular exercises for sciatica
- start gentle exercise as soon as you can – anything that gets you moving can help
- hold heat packs to the painful areas – you can buy these from pharmacies
- ask your pharmacist about painkillers (paracetamol is unlikely to help and it's not clear how much NSAIDs help with sciatica)
- put a small, firm cushion between your knees when sleeping on your side, or several firm pillows underneath your knees when lying on your back

11:41 66%

How to stop sciatica coming back

To reduce the chances of getting sciatica again:

Do

- stay active – take regular exercise
- use a safe technique when lifting heavy objects
- make sure you have a good posture when sitting and standing
- sit correctly when using a computer
- lose weight if you're overweight

Don't

- do not smoke – smoking can increase your risk of getting sciatica

Causes of sciatica

Sciatica happens when something presses or rubs

2. Build specific micronutrients

Supplements help build up micronutrients in your body, which may not be fully obtained through a regular diet. A few examples of important micronutrients include:

- Magnesium
- Vitamin D
- Vitamin E
- Vitamin B12
- Vitamin B6
- Zinc
- Selenium
- Fish oil (Omega-3 fatty acids)

These micronutrients help suppress inflammatory mediators and reduce the overall inflammatory processes. Vitamin E, zinc, and selenium act as antioxidants in the body.[1] The B group of vitamins help improve nerve health[2,3] and reduce sciatica. You can also take curcumin (turmeric) supplements if you don't consume turmeric as a part of your daily diet.

3. Release your natural pain killers

See Calcium and Vitamin D Requirements

3. Release your natural pain killers with massage

Massages can help you feel relaxed, release endorphins (your body's natural hormones that reduce the perception of pain), improve blood circulation, and soothe sore spinal muscles.

- A deep tissue massage can help restore the spine's range of motion, improving its flexibility.
- Manual therapy, a special form of medical massage, can help knead out knots, trigger points, or tension in the muscles.[4]

There are many forms of massage that can be beneficial, such as myofascial release and Shiatsu (a Japanese massage technique that utilizes finger and palm pressure and stretching techniques).[5]

These massages may be more effective in relieving sciatica pain from poor posture, muscle strain, or fatigued musculature in the lower spine.

1. Fish. Salmon and halibut, in particular, are rich in Omega-3 fatty acids that help fight inflammation.
2. Selected fruits. Fresh strawberries, blueberries, cherries and pineapple are good choices.
3. Green tea. Unsweetened is best.
4. Foods rich in B vitamins. Choose from red meats, poultry, shellfish, seafood, eggs, leafy green vegetables and nuts.
5. Foods rich in vitamin A. These include carrots, beef liver, sweet potato, spinach, broccoli, and sweet red pepper.
6. Foods rich in vitamin C. These foods have long been known for their anti-inflammatory qualities. Choose fresh citrus fruits, peppers, strawberries, Brussel sprouts, rose hips, guavas and parsley.
7. Foods rich in vitamin K. Broccoli and spinach are two popular examples.
8. Selected spices and flavorings. Turmeric, ginger and garlic added to drinks or cooked foods can help.

In general, these nutritional supplements will be antioxidants, anti-inflammatory or calming and relaxing in nature, such as:

Fish oils. They're rich in Omega-3 fatty acids.

B-Complex. Try to find a B complex supplement that is sourced from whole foods rather than synthetic sources.

Vitamin C. Here too, try to find a naturally sourced vitamin C.

Vitamin D.

Vitamin E.

Magnesium. Relaxing and calming for nerves and muscles.

Zinc.

Selenium.

Curcumin. This brightly colored, anti-inflammatory component is found in turmeric but can also be found in supplement form.

The Plan

Meeting people is never an accident. Someone can't walk in and out of your life without reason. Lessons and the growth that you experience are never spontaneous. It's always meant to be. There's a higher purpose, an end beyond you and I, which we will never know until we reach it. So, I want you to stop treating your experiences as casual occurrences that randomly took place and start looking for a deeper meaning, an end, or a goal. Something that helps you flourish, that teaches you the important lessons that only people and their existence can provide you. There is a plan – and you must find it if you want to conquer it. Think about it, in a world consisting of over 7.53 billion people, each capable of teaching you something – why did your path cross with this person? It was because you needed a particular lesson at this point in your life. Think about it deeply, only then will you stop treating your growth as an accident and start appreciating it as a beautiful journey meant just for you.

Ask me anything

When ideas run dry, what do you do to get inspired again?

Take a break!

Watch movies/play games I like or just get outside for a while. And don't force it.

The muse is like a cat - the more you try to force it to come sit with you the harder your life is going to be

Ask me a question

What's your favorite and hated part about production?

I hate it when my music doesn't make me feel anything. I know I won't be excited about a release if I don't really believe in it. Sometimes it takes me months to reach this point in a project.

I love most when other people enjoy my music. Making music just for yourself is fun, but there is no better feeling when others appreciate it too ❤️

I LOVE MAKING ART
I LOVE MAKING MUSIC
I LOVE MY JOB EVEN IF I DON'T GET PAID LIKE EVERYONE ELSE OR AT ALL IT'S SOMETHING THAT TAKES ME AWAY MENTALLY AND EMOTIONALLY EVEN AT MY LOWEST POINTS IN MY LIFE.

I'M GRATEFUL TO BE able TO REDISCOVER AND LEARN NEW THINGS AS OPPOSED TO A YEAR AGO OR TWO WHERE I WAS HAVING NO DIRECTION AND NO HOBBIES OR PASSIONS.

I FEEL MUCH MORE AT PEACE DESPITE THE STRUGGLES, THOSE OUTLETS ALLOW ME TO CHANNEL MY EMOTIONS AND CREATIVE WAYS AND IS ALLOWED ME TO CUT BAD HABITS AS WELL.

YOU CAN DO IT, YOU CAN BE A NEW YOU IT JUST TAKES ONE DAY AT A TIME PATIENCE PRACTICE AND CONSISTENCY AND A ROAD MAP TO WHERE YOU WANT TO GO!

LOVE YOU ALL GO OUT AND BE AMAZING QUIETLY OR OUT LOUD!

MTG WIKI

Attractions are artifacts, but they don't have a mana cost. They aren't cast, and in fact, they never even go to your hand. To get them from your Attraction deck to the battlefield, you'll need to open an attraction. When told to open an Attraction, put the top card of your Attraction deck onto the battlefield face up under your control. Each Attraction has attraction lights numbered 1–6 to the right of text box. Different variants of the same Attraction may have different lights lit up. The number 1 will never be lit up, and the number 6 will always be lit up.

At the beginning of your first main phase on each of your turns, you roll a six-sided die. When the lit-up number is rolled, you visit the attraction, and that attraction's visit ability is triggered.

Focus on habits that'll make you admirable:

- Work out
- Eat clean
- Forgive yourself

The more you stack good habits, the better you become.

7. Build a strong circle of friends.

You don't need a bunch of friends.

You should never trust a person with a lot of friends.

3-4 friends who share a common course are enough.

Always ask: How's this friend of benefit now and in future?

8. Make as much money as you can.

You should know money determines:

- The respect you get
- The friends you'll make
- Your position in the society
- Opportunities you'll be exposed to 90% of your problems will be solved by money.

I did almost everything myself until about 2 months ago, it just really started to take a toll on me emotionally and physically, I'm coming up on year 7 of doing this and I think it adds new life into my sound and also relieves so much stress from me workload wise 🙏

Black Quill Agent

Black Quill Agents are skilled tricksters that serve as the eyes and ears of the Black Quill. Trained to infiltrate organizations and befriend influential targets, agents of the Black Quill are believed to populate all significant cities.

Fanatically loyal, Black Quill Agents are sworn to keep their organization a secret, often joining local thieves' guilds for misdirection. By operating from within, agents coerce smaller thieves' guilds into unknowingly doing the Black Quill's bidding, helping to shape the state of the world from the shadows.

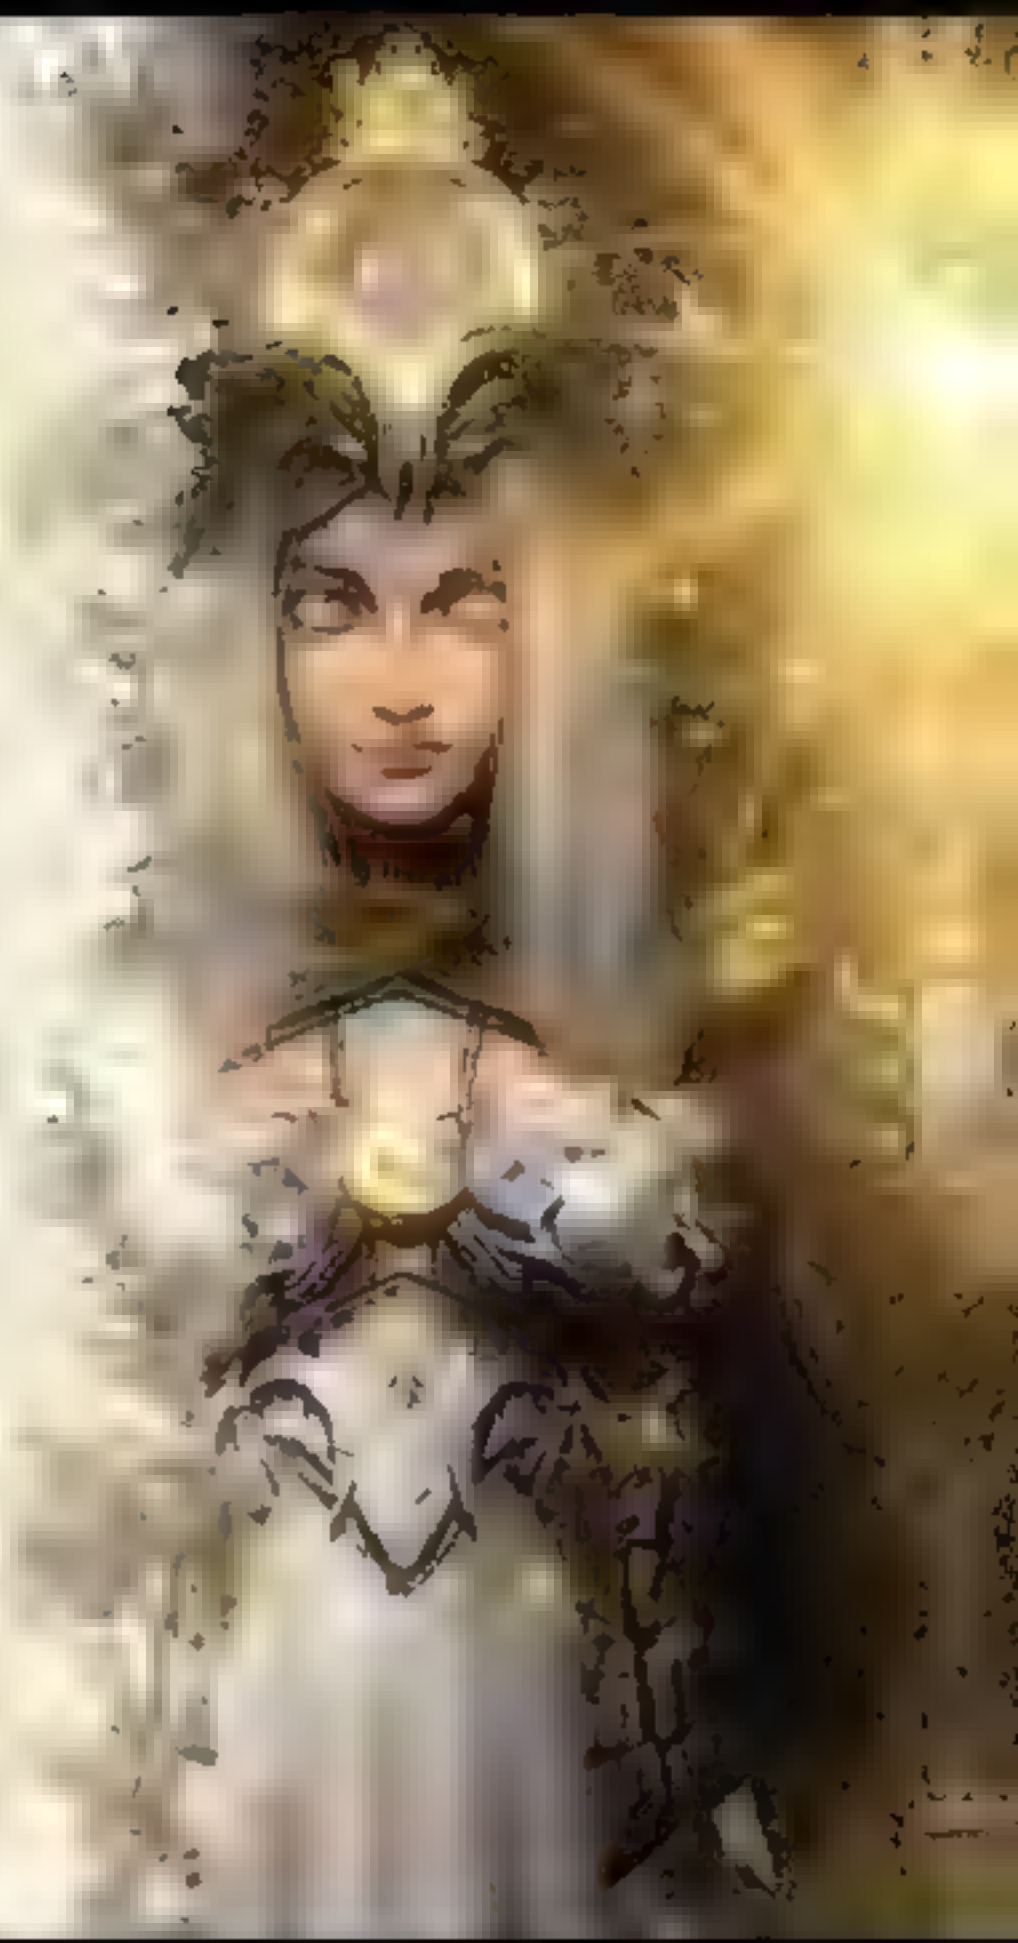
Lodestar: 5e Class



THE HUMAN WALKS UNDER THE MOONLIGHT, A small star floating by her side. She waves her hand, and the star flies ahead before turning to face her. A prismatic light pours out from the star bathing her in cosmic magic and invigorating her for what comes next. The human rushes forward, bolstered with enhanced speed as she calls upon her lunar guide to envelop the hostile creatures before her.

The adventuring party rushes down the corridor as dozens of goblins follow in pursuit. Badly wounded and needing respite, the weary dwarf calls upon his star guide. A small floating star materializes next to the dwarf before emitting a cascading prismatic light across the adventuring party. As the light illuminates the group, their wounds begin to heal. With a deep breath, the adventuring party turns back to face the coming onslaught. Thankfully, the prismatic light continues to shine brightly, providing aid pulled from the cosmos above.

Lodestars call upon their cosmic guide to summon and control a harmonizing star. These small floating stars are an adaptive tool from the heavens used to manage the battlefield, bolster their allies and punish their foes. As a Lodestar coordinates with its harmonizing star, it strategically shines its cone of light and acts as a shimmering beacon in the darkest depths of Erenel.

Cosmic Magic

Seen by many as Divinity before the light of the Above, Cosmic magic harnesses the unrelenting might of the stars. Created by the Architect Al'Madoon to push back the Null's onslaught against Erenel, each star constellation has a purpose and is a beacon of energy for anyone who can harmonize with its light.

Lodestars look to the guides Al'Madoon placed in the void surrounding Erenel, calling upon a solar, lunar or star guide for assistance through their harmonizing star. A harmonizing star resembles a small ball of light that hovers alongside its lodestar and can take on a unique Filled with wild forces of chaos that underlie the order of creation, Chaos Dragons have endured exposure to raw magic. This process typically happens while incubating as an egg, changing the dragon from its original chromatic or metallic type into a new chaotic mixture.

Chaos Dragons are capable of changing their colors and forms. In their natural state, they are typically long serpentine dragons, wingless with shimmering, opalescent scales. Even without the aid of wings, the Chaos dragon can fly, slithering through the sky like a snake
